

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

WISCONSIN & ANN ARBOR

2.11.2020

The purpose of this document is to form an Articulation Agreement between Concordia University Wisconsin (CUW) and Concordia University in Portland, Oregon (CUP) regarding the M.Ed. Curriculum and Instruction program. The Articulation Agreement would serve the interests of students currently enrolled in the Curriculum and Instruction program who are seeking to transfer and enroll in CUW's Master of Science in Education – Teaching and Learning.

Due to CUP's closure, which is scheduled for the end of April, 2020, CUW is willing to enter into an agreement with CUP students, beginning with the Fall Semester (July 1, 2020), who want to enroll in the CUW Graduate Teaching and Learning program with the following understanding and conditions:

- Students must meet the application requirements of CUW (an expedited application process will be deployed specially for CUP students).
- Students must complete the requirements of the Teaching and Learning program.
- Student transcripts will be reviewed to match courses to your CUW program.
- Students will be required to complete a research course and capstone project.
- Students will be required to take a short Blackboard and online training module as established by CUW's Office of Distance and Continuing Education (OCDE) department.
- All credits earned in the CUP M.Ed. programs will be eligible for transfer and application to the Teaching and Learning requirements. Only courses with B grades or better will be accepted.
- Students transferring from CUP to CUW to obtain a Master's degree will not be eligible for licensure endorsement through CUW.
- CUP M.Ed. Core Courses will be applied to the required courses of Teaching and Learning:
